CAREER & TECHNICAL EDUCATION
Jobs at the Opera.
Explore backgrounds and training of people who work at the Opera.
How does the opera support other types of jobs in San Francisco? What are the professionals outside the opera who make the opera happen? Police, fire, caterers, etc.
Organizational chart of San Francisco Opera.

Assign jobs from the opera to students in the classroom. Who would be Edgardo? Who would be Enrico? What would be the most coveted jobs? What would be the most important jobs?
How are jobs different now from then?

Compare jobs that are top-down, vs collaborative (i.e. working in an office vs. working on a fishing boat). Following instructions vs. creative skills.
How did people get jobs in Donizetti’s time?
What are the jobs of the characters in the opera? Examine jobs in Scotland during the time of the opera, and in Italy when Donizetti was writing the opera.

How would people do work differently in Lucia di Lammermoor’s or Donizetti’s time? How would they be limited by available technology? What kinds of skills did they need that they don’t need today?
Examine the history of contracts. How are contracts used to formalize personal and business relationships?
How are contractual disputes resolved between two parties today?
Research the history of women at work.
HEALTH EDUCATION

The unifying ideas of health literacy are as follows:

- Acceptance of personal responsibility for lifelong health
- Respect for and promotion of the health of others
- An understanding of the process of growth and development
- Informed use of health-related information, products, and services

Taking care of your body. Ex. What do performers have to do to prepare their body for performing?

Dealing with emotions, stress. Ex. Explore from the point of view of each character.

LANGUAGE ARTS
WORD ANALYSIS, FLUENCY, AND VOCABULARY DEVELOPMENT

Phonics and Phonemic Awareness:

Letter Recognition: Name the letters in a word. Ex. Lucia = L-u-c-i-a.

Letter/Sound Association: Name the letters and the beginning and ending sound in a word. E-dgard-o

Match and list words with the same beginning or ending sounds. Ex. Edgardo and Enrico have the same beginning letter “E” and sound /e/; and end with the same letters and ending sounds. Additional examples: Lucia, Alisa; Edgardo, Normanno.

Syllables: Count the syllables in a word. Ex.: Ed-gar-do

Match and list words with the same number of syllables. Clap out syllables as beats. Ex.: 1 syllable 2 syllables 3 syllables bass = bass tenor = ten-or soprano = so-pra-no

Phoneme Substitution: Play with the beginning sounds to make silly words. What would a “boprano” sound like? (Also substitute middle and ending sounds.) Ex. soprano, boprano, toprano, koprano.

Phoneme Counting: How many sounds in a word? Ex. bell = 3

Phoneme Segmentation: Which sounds do you hear in a word? Ex. bell = b/e/l.

Definitions:

Find words in Lucia di Lammermoor that are unfamiliar and find definitions and roots.

Learn Opera vocabulary: soprano, mezzo-soprano, bass.

Word analysis:

Examine contrasting vocabulary. Create lists of good vs. evil words from opera; write definitions.

Take lines from Italian libretto and translate the text using Google translate or Babelfish; do the supertitles match exactly? If not, why not?

Find analogies in Lucia di Lammermoor.

Explore the use of metaphors, ex.: rings, the ghost of the dead girl.

Concepts of Print: Sentence structure, punctuation, directionality.

Parts of speech: Noun, verb, adjective, adverb, prepositions.
Reading Comprehension:

Story Development: Character desires and motivation;
Cause and effect: What made this happen? Sequencing of events, climax, resolution.
Read: Source material for Lucia di Lammermoor, Lucia di Lammermoor libretto, letter from Donizetti, biographies, etc.
Read sections of the English translation of the libretto. Write a brief synopsis based on the libretto.
Read the original Sir Walter Scott novel, The Bride of Lammermoor.
Types of text: Poetry, fairy tale, song text, libretto, script for media arts, biography, etc.
Reading Skills: Build skills using the subtitles on the video and related educator documents.

CREATIVE WRITING

Creative writing: Interpret the story and create a new version. Create your own characters.
Write about main characters’ before the story starts. Write about Lucia’s childhood.
Construct a love letter from Lucia to Edgardo while he travels to France.
Write an alternative ending. Where would you begin your new ending?
Explore the emotions and motivations of the various characters.
How could the story have ended differently if characters had worked out their differences constructively?
Write about a good character or an evil character.
Put yourself in the position of one of the characters; make an argument for your philosophy of life.
Explore different genres of writing: poetry, song text, libretto, script for media arts, biography, autobiography, short story, historical novel, etc.
Explore literary devices such as the use of point of view, internal/external conflict, repetition of phrases, foreshadowing, building of tension.

LITERARY RESPONSE AND ANALYSIS

Elements of a Story:
Character, plot, setting, conflict.
Identify rising action, climax, falling action.

Vocabulary:
Reading for understanding using the subtitles on videos and related educator documents.
Libretto, soprano, tenor, etc.
Fantasma, Spectral
Genres:
Fantasy vs. Reality, non-fiction, novel, play.
Play 15-minute segments of the opera; students journal after watching the segments.
Students respond to a letter from Lucia asking them for advice.
Chart out the elements of the plot.
Read a synopsis of Act I; how would you complete this story?
Examine the use of letters in operas or other works of art. How do they act as plot devices?
Examine character development: do the characters grow beyond their expected roles? What is status of servants at the end of the opera? What is the status of the women vs. the men?

Themes:
Examine the themes of the opera:
Love & Madness - jealousy, deception, self-centeredness, envy, grief, bitterness, rage, evil
Power – control, manipulation, vengeance
Family - familial influence, family feuds, religion

Character actions and motives:
Explore each lead characters’ actions and why they do the things they do.
How do the contrasting characters traits in Lucia di Lammermoor drive the story forward?
What are Lucia’s character traits? Edgardo?
How do characters’ actions move story along?
Why did Enrico forge the letter?
How could characters have changed their actions to alter the course of the story?
What are characters’ real motives?

Archetypes:
The conniving brother
The suspicious, jealous, lover
The beauty gone mad
The loyal servant
Character Development:
Analyze the characters in the opera. What motivates their actions? What are their main traits?

Does Lucia develop over time?

Do you see Lucia as a strong character or a weak character?

Explore the supporting role of Alisa. Does she genuinely care for Lucia?

Are any of the characters emotionally strong or weak?

How does Edgardo change over time?

How are characters developed through dialogue and soliloquy? How do characters change over course of opera?

How could the characters have altered their actions for a more favorable outcome? How are characters affected by outside events beyond their control? How do they react?

Examine character development: do the characters grow beyond their expected roles? What is status of servants at the end of the opera? What is the status of the women vs. the men?

Pick your favorite character in the opera and describe him/her. Write a letter from his/her point of view to another character.

Compare the characters in this opera to the characters in Donizetti’s comic opera The Elixir of Love.

Examine the use of subtext in the opera. Are people always saying what they mean, or is their language intended to mask something?

Figurative Language: Simile, Metaphor, Hyperbole, Personification, Allegory:
Language style and music reflects emotion of characters, and instrumental sounds or musical phrases can be used symbolize character.

Lucia’s madness is associated with the glass harmonica.

WRITING STRATEGIES

Analysis and Interpretation:

Expository writing, critiques/reviews

Poetry, fairy tale, song text, libretto, script for media arts, biography, program, program article, synopsis, etc.

Lucia di Lammermoor production materials: artist biographies, program and program notes, synopsis, expository writing, critiques/reviews, etc.

How does Donizetti grab attention at beginning of opera? How do writers grab the audience’s attention?

What other stories do you see the relationship between Lucia and Edgardo?

Compare and contrast Lucia to Romeo and Juliet.

Compare and contrast Iago from Shakespeare’s Otello and Enrico’s action.

Compare and contrast Edgardo’s ring throwing scene to Alfredo’s money throwing scene in La Traviata.

Why does Lucia tell Edgardo not to ask her brother for her hand in marriage?
Persuasive Writing:

Letter writing, copywriting: advertising, fundraising, press release.

Scenes, letters, diary or blog pages can be written from a particular character's point of view; make sure to take relationships between characters into account. Diary pages could focus on how characters convince themselves to do something—internal debate or use stream of consciousness.

Write the forged letter that Enrico shows to Lucia di Lammermoor so that she will believe that Edgardo has forgotten her.

Write the marriage contract that Arturo and Lucia sign.

Explore biographies of the historical characters; write biographies of their real-life counterparts. How does their depiction in the opera correspond to historical accounts?

Research the source materials for Lucia di Lammermoor. How does the novel differ from the opera? What do they share in common?

Write a modern-day version.

Write a different ending for the opera.

Write or draw a deleted scene for the opera; a scene we hear about, but don't see.

Persuasive writing: create posters, advertisements for one of the characters.

Keep journals from the point of view of the characters during the events of the opera.

Write a “me” poem for each of the characters: begin the poem with “I am” and list the characteristics of each person in separate phrases.

Write parrot poems from the point of view of the characters. Parrot poems are conversational poems in which partners write each line in turn.

Rewrite libretto using today as a setting. Use contemporary characters: who would be Enrico today? Lucia di Lammermoor?

Rewrite a scene from the opera, switching the genders of the characters. How does the scene change? Rewrite a scene, changing the ethnicities. How does it change?

Write a passage expressing several characters’ inner thoughts at the same time.

Writing exercise in which feelings are expressed like those in Lucia di Lammermoor arias.

Create a storyboard of Lucia di Lammermoor as a soap opera.

WRITTEN AND ORAL ENGLISH LANGUAGE CONVENTIONS

Spelling: Spell the names of the characters in Lucia di Lammermoor.

Watch different versions of the opera on DVD and write reviews. Read example reviews first.

Debates between characters. Deliver persuasive speeches, identify tactics used.

Write a monologue with two scenes based on the alternate points of view held by a single character.

Facial cues, expressions, gestures can sometimes amplify message being delivered, or can sometimes run contrary to meaning of words.

Analyze ensembles; how does music allow multiple people to say very different things at the same time? Can you do this in spoken word—improv activity.
LISTENING AND SPEAKING

Oral Speaking:
Connection between the written words and oral interpretation (recitative and sung), the phrasing and musicality of speech.

Act out main events of the story, in tableaux or longer scenes. Improvise. Give small groups different scenes, and then act out in succession.

Write two speeches about the same thing; write one to be delivered to a friend, and one to be delivered to a person of authority. How does your language differ?

Reflection:
What did you see, think, hear and feel? Ex. Verbal & written responses to Lucia di Lammermoor.

BACKGROUND INFORMATION
Donizetti, composer, and Salvadore Cammarano, librettist: Biographies, timeline of works.
Settings of play, opera. Where do characters come from?

Understanding the Plot:

Act I; Scene 1
The opera opens with the Enrico, (Lucia’s brother) and his men seeking an intruder on the property of their newly acquired castle. Who is it? (Edgardo) Why do they care? (it used to be his land; also he is there to secretly meet with Lucia)

What else is troubling Enrico? (his family’s fortunes have been diminished, and Lucia is refusing the hand of the man who could save the family, Arturo))

Why is Edgardo Enrico’s mortal enemy? The Ravenswood family has a historical feud with the Ashton family

Why might Lucia not be interested in love? (her mother recently died) But is this true? No, she is in with love for Edgardo

What does Enrico do? Swears he will end the relationship

Act I; Scene 2
Lucia foreshadows her later insanity at this point. What does she tell her maid/companion Alisa? (she saw the ghost of a girl killed where they are by a jealous Ravenswood man, and her body is in the fountain)

What is Alisa’s response? The ghost’s fate is a warning and she should give up Edgardo

Why does Edgardo leave for France? (his family has joined the Scottish revolt, they are out of power and he is going to seek help from Louis XIV)

What does he plan to do before he leaves? See Enrico and ask for Lucia’s hand in marriage

Lucia tries to dissuade him and he reacts angrily. Why? (Enrico’s father was killed by Enrico and his family put his family out of power; He is on the outs and blames Enrico)

What happens next? (Edgardo then declares his love for Lucia and they secretly become betrothed)
Act II; Scene I

Enrico has arranged a marriage for Lucia for monetary/political reasons. Who did he choose and why? Arturo – he is rich and powerful)
What is Enrico worrying about? (The guests have arrived for the wedding and he is not sure if Lucia will submit to the marriage)
Lucia enters downcast. Enrico asks her why. What does she say? (She is promised to another and does not want to marry Arturo)
How does Enrico respond? (He shows her a forged letter saying that Edgardo has another love)
How does Enrico manipulate Lucia? (He tells her only Arturo can rescue Enrico from ruin; he positions it as her betraying him; he sees she is going mad and he tells her his ghost will haunt her forever)
What does Raimondo use to finally persuade her? Her mother’s death – she says she will be tormented in her grave).
Lucia finally tells him they have won. How does she foreshadow her suicide? (Lucia picks up a sword and puts it in her sleeve)
Does anyone care about Lucia in her family? No, only the role she can play reestablishing the family’s fortunes)

Act II; Scene II

Why is everyone celebrating? (Through Arturo they see hope of prosperity again)
What is Lucia’s demeanor when she enters (Luci enters looking sad and distracted) Does anyone notice or seem to care? (No in fact Enrico is mad at her)
Enrico forces her to sign the contact. What does she say? (She says she is being led to sacrifice, she has signed her own death warrant)
What happens when Edgardo enters? Raimondo shows him Lucia’s signature on the marriage contract and he curses Lucia and stomps out.
How does the scene end? (Famous sextet, everyone says what they are feeling)

Act III

Enrico challenges Edgardo to a duel. Why? What is Edgardo eager to avenge? (His father’s death)
Why are the wedding celebrants so happy? Because the wedding will make them more financially secure and thus safer and stronger)
But what happens? (Lucia murders Arturo, going crazy)
How do the celebrants react? (They pray they won’t be punished for this murder)
The famous Mad Scene ensues. What happens? (Lucia, dressed in her wedding gown, is soaked in blood from Arturo’s murder. She imagines Edgardo is with her and that they are getting married. She thinks back to the fountain where we first see evidence of her madness)
Who then enters? Enrico enters having heard the news and threatens her; the crowd defends her)
Finally Raimondo takes Lucia’s side – says Enrico’s his cruelty destroyed her life
She continues to sing to Edgardo and says she waits to see him in heaven; she wants to die she is so unhappy.
Why does Edgardo say he is the last member of a cursed family? (because so many of his ancestors are buried there – they were killed in the latest political skirmish)
Why does Edgardo want to die? (He thinks Lucia is married to Arturo)
Raimondo enters and says she’s in heaven and Edgardo wants to join her; what does he do? (Stabs himself and dies)
ACTIVITIES

Create a character sketch.

Story writing: Adapt existing source material; create story/characters. Or write new endings, deleted scenes.

Libretto writing: Adapt Lucia di Lammermoor (existing source material) or create a new story/characters.

Write a prequel for the opera about Lucia’s and/or Edgardo’s life.

Write a letter from one character to another; choose a moment in the story.

Create written copy: program, poster design, advertising, biography, etc.

Read and report on program articles and reviews. Write your own review of a performance of Lucia di Lammermoor. Compare and contrast two different versions of Lucia di Lammermoor available on DVD.

Create a news report about Lucia di Lammermoor using HyperStudio.

Write a Dear Abby letter from one of the characters in the opera, and Abby’s response. Read newspaper, magazine and web society pages and gossip columns:

Write a blog post or design a fake Facebook or Myspace page for a character (exploring avatars—public vs. private persona). Write fake Twitter log for characters over the course of 24 hours.

- Have students create their own social scene.
- Create a society magazine, web magazine, talk show/entertainment program detailing the lives and intrigues of characters.
- Create diary/blog pages/Twitter blasts/web avatars for the characters in Lucia di Lammermoor.
- Conduct debates between characters.
- Using a letter from one character to another in the opera; edit the letter down to a tweet or Facebook post.

Read and report on the Feature Article from the opera program.

Create a board game for the opera, similar to The Game of Life.

MATHEMATICS

ATTRIBUTES

Comparisons in Lucia di Lammermoor.

Sorting and Classifying: What belongs, what does not belong, and why. Ex. Enrico and Lucia are Ashtons, while Edgardo is a member of the Ravenswood family. Alisa and Normanno serve Lucia and Enrico.

MEASUREMENT

Lucia di Lammermoor’s Use of Standard Units of Measurement in Story & Set Design.

2D & 3D Dimensions: Area, Perimeter, Volume, Scale, Proportion, Ratio.

Weight: Physical, Metaphorical, Balance.

Time: Passage of time (real & theatrical time), times of day (morning, afternoon and night; yesterday, today, tomorrow; time of everyday events such as dinner & bed time), estimation, reading time, age of characters.

Research Donizetti’s and the librettists’ salaries for Lucia di Lammermoor. What is the proportion of one to another?

What currency was used during Donizetti’s day? How much was it worth compared to today’s money?

If you were Enrico, how much would it have cost to run your household? Create a budget for his household, taking into account all expenses.

Count the number of people who need to be paid when putting on an opera; use cast and company listings in the program to calculate.

Estimate how many people are in large ensemble scenes. Taking into account all the people on stage, how much would such a scene cost, in Donizetti’s time and now?

Measure distances between places mentioned in the opera. Use map scales to convert inches to miles.

Measure the acreage of Scotland.

How far is Scotland from France?

What’s the square footage of a Scottish castle?

Measure how much fabric would have been used in a wedding gown. Try to create your own, or draw a diagram.
GEOMETRY
As found in Lucia di Lammermoor’s character, costume & set design.
Identification of Shapes, Repetition & Pattern, Rhythm & Symmetry.
Planes (Square, Rectangle, Triangle, Circle) & 3D (Cube, Pyramid, Sphere). Positive & Negative Space, Interior & Exterior Space.
Calculate area of opera stages today vs. opera stages during Donizetti’s time.
Build a scale model of Enrico’s castle. Take proportions into account. Calculate area of Enrico’s castle.

NUMBER SENSE
Counting using the production elements and music of Lucia di Lammermoor.
Formulas & calculations: Addition, subtraction, multiplication, division.
More, less, or same as.
Concept of zero (absences, disappearances. Ex. rests/silence in music.
Ordering & sequencing.
Recognizing and creating numerical patterns. Ex. beats, ABA pattern in music.
Survey taking: tallying and graphing.

During the mad scene, an instrument duets with Lucia as she sings. Often this is a flute but sometimes a glass harmonica is used. What is a glass harmonica, who invented it and what sound does it produce? (rub wets fingers on the rim of glass, Benjamin Franklin invented it, produces other worldly sound described as whistling and high-pitched) Learn more about the glass harmonica. Who invented the glass harmonica? How does the glass harmonica work? Describe the sound created by the instrument? What qualities does the instrument bring to Lucia’s mad scene?

Shortly before the premiere, Donizetti rewrote the part for flute. Why? (the glass harmonica player at the theater in Naples was embroiled in a contractual dispute with company officials)

Explore musical instruments used in this opera; have they changed since Donizetti’s time? What instruments existed in the 18th and 19th centuries that don’t exist now, and visa versa, what exist now that did not exist back then? How have instruments evolved over time?
ACTIVITIES

Listen to multiple recordings of Lucia di Lammermoor and study different interpretations.

Compare the many sopranos who are famous for playing Lucia. Do you have a favorite?

Learn and memorize songs from Lucia di Lammermoor.

Listen to musical “mad scenes” from various operas; how do composers dramatize those moments?

Create and perform songs for the characters/events of Lucia di Lammermoor using instruments and voices.

Study the musical forms of Bel Canto. Identify the places in the opera where Donizetti is using known musical forms. Look for places the form is embellished. Find other songs that use the same forms.

Graph out characters in the opera; while watching a clip of the opera, fill out chart describing look, movement, voice of each character. How does the director tell the story through these details?

VISUAL ARTS

How are line, color, shape, and texture used in costumes and sets of Lucia di Lammermoor?

LINE

Use of line qualities: soft or hard, wavy or angular, silly spirals.

COLOR

Symbolism of color; color associated with particular characters. How do colors of costumes define characters?

Symmetry/contrast in character pairings. Ex. Lucia/Edgardo.

Examine contrast of light and dark; use of lighting.

The emotion of color. Ex. red=passionate, blue=calm, yellow=cheerful.

Revealing character traits through the use of color—how do the characters’ costumes, including fabrics and colors, reflect their status?

What colors would you use for different moments in the opera?

Explore personal associations with color.

The use of lighting to establish mood and setting.

SHAPE

The use of shape in character design.

Positive & Negative Space—the stage is a frame.

TEXTURE

Texture: Material use in sets and costumes.

Visual Texture: Pattern and repetition in sets and costumes. How is texture used to convey status?
SPACE
Set design: From 2D plans to 3D construction.

ACTIVITIES
Look at designs for the sets of Lucia di Lammermoor; would you design the sets in the same ways?

Design sets and costumes for a production of Lucia di Lammermoor set in a different time and place of your choosing.

Explore the time period that Lucia di Lammermoor is set in and what people wore during that time. Create a doll or draw what your costumes would look like.

Design gowns for Lucia di Lammermoor, for both the romantic moments and the mad scene. What colors would she wear?

If you were to update the costumes, what time period would you set Lucia?

Explore the different ways that you might create Lucia’s bloody wedding gown. How would you create fake blood?

Research Scottish clothing and textiles during the period of the opera.
Create posters and advertisements for the opera, or for a particular character in the opera.

Explore the history of typefaces; design the title in an appropriate typeface.

Create illustrations and storyboards outlining the plot of Lucia di Lammermoor.

Free-association drawing to music. Ex. Maurice Sendak’s Fantasy Sketches.

Design a production: dioramas, scale models, backdrops, props, costumes.

Puppetry: Create your own version of Lucia di Lammermoor using puppets (paper bags, stick puppets, shadow puppets, marionettes, and bunraku).

Design character make-up, costume, sets and props for classroom operas.

Listen to audio-only examples prior to viewing the opera. Choose design elements based on the music and text.

Draw silhouettes of characters; draw characters in other styles, like anime.

Create an advertisement for a performance of Lucia di Lammermoor.

Compare two different filmed versions of Lucia di Lammermoor; which visualization is more effective and why?

Assign students to be patrons and others to be artists; patrons commission artists to create portraits using certain instructions.

Explore scale in production design; how do imposing sets make people look small? How do you make something that fits on an opera set? What is the scale of a tree on a set?

THEATRE

Examine storyline, character development through theater games (similar to writing exercises in ELA connections).

Practice movement required for a party scene or other crowd scenes. How do individuals act like individuals in a crowd scene?

Practice walking like Lucia di Lammermoor and Edgardo. How are their walks different?

Play “status” games. How do people act differently toward you based on your class or job status?

Practice walking like a member of the opposite sex. How do you carry yourself differently?

How do performers move onstage differently than offstage? How do they have to move so that the audience can translate their movements?

How do the performers act when they’re singing their thoughts vs. singing to each other?

STAGING

Stage vocabulary: Upstage, downstage, levels, blocking.

Theater Exercises: Tableaux, pantomime, improvisation, vocal projection.

What is a freeze frame? Term used during a live performance of a play or opera, the actors/actresses will freeze at a particular, pre-determined time, to enhance a particular scene, or to show an important moment in the play/production. The image can then be further enhanced by spoken word or song, in which each character tells their personal thoughts regarding the situation. When does this happen in Lucia? (the sextet at the end of the Act II)

What scenes do you think are worthy of a “freeze frame”?

How does a scene fill the space on a stage?

Recreate a scene in the opera with 3 or more characters.

What part of the opera would you stage differently?

Identify other forms of staging in the opera.

Explore the mad scene. How does the opera’s depiction of “madness” reflect the interests of the romantic period?

Talking to the 4th wall

Design two separate Lucia sets with two separate groups – one with a large budget and one with a small budget.

Stage etiquette & audience behavior.

THEATRE JOBS

Opera Production Team: Director, stage manager, choreographer, designer, diction coach, artistic administrator, choreographer, lighting, adaption, abridgement, supernumeraries, etc.

In-House Personnel: Marketing, accounting, ticket takers, ushers etc.
ACTIVITIES

Act out scenes about the themes from the opera: madness, jealousy, friendship and loyalty, etc.

Act out characters and emotions in gestures: shyness, snobbery, bravado, persuasion. How can you exaggerate gestures to show emotion? Other students guess who you are.

Act out scenes from opera in different settings and times (Lucia lives in San Francisco in 1960’s).

Students pick characters to portray; determine how they would act out story. Examine how characters play off each other. Partnering.

Create movement and gestures to react to particular lines of the libretto.

Create movement to react to particular musical moments.

Create tableaux of different scenes.

Improvise prologues and epilogues to the story.

DANCE

Dance and Creative Movement in Stage-Blocking. Ex: wedding scene.

How is dance incorporated into the opera, into the music of the opera? How are dances used in operas?

How is age and gender communicated through the way performers move in a dance?

Research dances of Scotland. How do folk dances, such as highland dance or country dancing relate to the dances of today?

What are the roles of choreographers, dance captains and dancers?

ACTIVITIES

Character Dances: Mirror dancing–partners and symmetry.

Match movement with vocabulary. Ex. glide, slither, leap, tremble.

Interpreting the instruments through dance– improv to music.

Choose a dance style that best represents each character. Ex. Lucia and Edgardo.
